There were a few watchtowers in the direction of the samaill. As the towers were nearer the samuill than the factory, it was possible that they were principally meant for the protection of the former. Civilian factory guards were at the outrances and within the works. German Mis were supervised by military guards. In 1950, however, supervision was not strict. 50X1-HUM Layout of Packery 80 aperoximate 50X1-HUM the factory aroa of 300m x 150m.
